The case has now materially changed. Louisville, from having been a market for the manufactures of other towns, is now not only supplying the wants of her citizens, but is sending abroad

very large quantities of superior and tasteful furniture of her own make; and instead of paying out large sums for articles produced in other places, she is constantly adding to her means,

by supplying Southern and Western markets with a considerable portion of what they want in the way of furniture. When the Nashville

Railroad is completed, and furniture can be sent readily, at cheap rates, to Southern Kentucky and Tennessee, we anticipate for our manufacturers, in that particular line, a very large increase in their business, and expect to see Louisville made furniture occupy a prominent place in the list of exports from our market. When within six or seven hours

Louisville Gas Works-No. IV. The company claim that it costs them, includng interest on the works, $1 38 to make each 000 cubic feet of gas. We say, if the city owned the works, the gas could be furnished to consumers at $1 50 nett cash per 1,000 feet, and the city could save the price now paid for gas consumed in the street lamps, which will be this year about $18,000, and still make money. And here is the proof.

The entire expenditure of the Company in 1858 ..$48,596 38 Deduct coke and tar sold, $5,673 08 discount on gas bills, 4,458 30 correction of gas bills. 273 75

Nett expenditure......$80ld by metre, 31,717,100 cubic feet at $1 50 nett per M.........4 47,574 65 Nett receipts.

Balance of profit..... After paying all expenses, and furnishing gas for the public lamps.

If on the manufacture and sale of gas last year profit of $28,000, including the gas used in the amps, is shown, that profit would be largely increased in the course of a few years by the inreased consumption of gas, which would be caused by low prices. It is useless to disguise the fact, or attempt to conceal it by raising a dust about the cost of making the gas: the business is not only profitable in all its branches, but is becoming more so every day; and the Council, if they perform their duty to the city, will require the company to carry out the purposes of the charter, by dividing out the excessive surplus rofits on hand, and seeing that the city gets the benefit of her portion, by having it invested to the general interests of the city than to bring forward best advantage, so that its accumulations will enable the city to own the works in 1869, without having to create a new debt to pay for them .-This can undoubtedly be done if the Council will not flinch from the performance of their duty.

KINNEY & Co.'s JUVENILE TROUPE.-It should be remembered by all lovers of music, dancing, and fun, that this troupe make their appearance on this evening at Mozart Hall. We take the folowing from the Memphis Ledger:

We have never seen a more select and intelligent additory in Odd Fellows' Hall, than was present last night, to witness the performance of these won-derful children. They are nightly growing in favor with the public, and it would appear that one visit to the little rogues creates a desire to see them again—for we noticed a number of ladies and gentlemen present last night, who attended both their previous entertainments. This fact is a high compliment to the ability of the little genlemen to interest and amuse, and a happy presage of a brilliant future for the troupe.

They have a fine conception of the eccentric negro character, a keen appreciation of the ludicrous. and possess the good sense to drop a theme as soon as they have extracted all the humor from

; in other, and more modern phrase, they never un a joke in the ground, and consequently nev vill give immediate attention to the nuisance at the intersection of Third and Main streets. There is a most villianous stench emitted from the sewers under the street. If the iron plates were taken up, and the filth and garbage that are odged in the sewer removed, we think the nuisance would be abated. It is outrageous, that one of the principal thoroughfares of the city should remain for twenty-four hours in a condition so offensive, not only to residents in the neighborhood, but to all persons who have occasion to pass the street.

THEATER .- This evening the splendid spectacle of "Herne, the Hunter," will be presented, for the second time, to a Louisville audience. A fine au. dience witnessed the performance last evening and though many of the actors were new to their respective parts, yet the entertainment gave unusual satisfaction, and we hope an appreciative audience will be present this evening, as we can assure them that they will not be disappointed n their expectation of witnessing one of the finest dramatic spectacles ever put on the stage. "Money saved is money made," says the great philosopher, Franklin. If you want any kind of first-class or cheap furniture, you have only to go to I. Grauman's new auction and commission warerooms, 603 Market street, between Brook and Floyd, under the Shrader House, where you will find the largest and cheapest assortment of fine furniture in this city. G. Henry & Co. Special at tention is called to this sale, as the goods have nearly all been received since last sale, and are well worth the attention of the retailer. At 12 o'clock precisely a line of ingrain, staple, and linen earpets will be sold MESSRS. DUNCAN AND KING .- We understand these gentlemen shoot two matches to-day, at Spring Garden.

First Match-For $100 each, at fifteen single birds each, twenty yards rise, one hundred yards bounds. Second Match-For $200 each, at thirty pairs of double birds, twenty-one yards rise, one hundred yards bounds. No doubt this shooting will be interesting, and large crowd will be in attendance to witness it.

THE CRAIG WILL CASE .- This will was presentd before the Jefferson County Court on Satur day. No proof was adduced on the part of those ontesting the will, and it was, therefore, admitted record, to which the contestants excepted, and prayed an appeal to the Jefferson Circuit Court. In this Court the whole merits of the case will be tried. No inference, therefore, can be drawn from this proceeding as to the final result. The parties will now prepare the case for final adjudication.

Notice is hereby given that during the va ation of the city schools no school tickets will be received as fare upon the Louisville and Portand Railroad line, either upon 'bus or car; and parties are hereby warned not to purchase mor than they will use within that time, as they will have to hold over any surplus they may have on hand during the time the schools are closed.

THE HINDOO LECTURE.-Mr. Gangooly, a nativ Hindoo, recently from Calcutta, delivered a lec ture at the Mozart Hall last night. He had good audience, and an attentive one. His lecture was upon the manners and customs of India, and much valuable information was imparted. He spoke very good English for a foreigner, and,

"I miss the Courier this morning, and on referring to my memorandum, I find my time up.—Forward again the Daily Courier without delay. I am subject to some little agreeable annoyance from my good friends, who daily seek the news from the columns of the Courier than the columns of the column my good friends, who daily seek the news from the columns of the Courier, so that I am deprived of its perusal at leisure. A snatch must suffice. It goes the rounds, from hand to hand, in quick succession. The position of the Courier has been bold, clear and convincing upon the subject of the right of Congress to protect property in the Territories: that those who a short time ago, very modestly, would not deny such a right, claimed, as a matter of expediency, that we should say nothing about it, lest schism weaken the Democratic party. This exceeding modest timidity is being rapidly dispelled by the bold and fearless stand taken by the Courier. When a question of the most vital interest, not only to question of the most vital interest, not only to Kentucky, but to the whole South, is being dis-cussed throughout the length and breadth of the Union, is it not rather a reproach to the great Democratic party, to say that we have rights recognized by the highest tribunal of our Gov-ernment, vet not assert them, but tacitly sufferrnment, yet not assert them, but tacitly suffer the Black Republican heresies of Douglas come incorporated into the Democratic creed?— No, if we have rights, let the world know that we understand them; that our platform is based upon it, and that a surrender of it, is of itself a issolution of the Democratic party, irreparable.

Capt. Simms at Paris. The Frankfort Commonwealth of yesterday, in ts account of the debate at Paris last Thursday, eports Capt. Simms as having said, "that i he were sent to Congress, he would vote for a law to hang a negro stealer as high as Haman.' Let us hear no more, then, gentlemen of the Opposition, about Capt. Simms not being sound on the protection question. This little paragraph in he Commonwealth is proof enough on that point.

Capt. Simms is not only sound on the protec tion question, but he is going to be elected. He will be in the next Congress certain. The Opposition can't keep him out. He stands even with Harlan on the protection of slavery in the Territories, and ahead of him on everything else. Hurrah for Capt. Simms! We would give him thousand and one votes if we had them.

The Hon. Linn Boyd. We publish, this morning, a first-rate article rom the Richmond Enquirer on the question of otection to slavery in the Territories. The Enuirer would be just to Mr. Boyd's position on his question, provided the article from the Lexngton Statesman, on which it comments. fairly epresented Mr. Boyd. The truth is, however, Ir. Boyd occupies the position of the Courier on his question, and the Enquirer has no cause of quarrel with us. Thus do we daily see the evil ffects produced abroad by the misrepresentations of our candidates, for the purpose of propping up the rotten platforms of our own partizan

The Louisville Journal, echoing the idiotic ery of some stupid Democratic time-servers in Kentucky, asserts that the Courier has abandoned ts original position on the slavery question. We are nothing about such nonsense. We are just where we started on this question, and there we ntend to remain. We are not to be driven from the true path by foes, nor seduced from it by riends. We intend, however, very soon to show are wuz one thing I cudent understan' till I tas-ted the waters, although Mister Kellogg tried tu 'splain it. The water comin' down in the water up the policical hypocrisy, chicanery, and rascality of the Journal on this question, as well as upon works war simple enough, but here the water squirts up more nor forty feet outen the groun', an' you can tell by the taste ov it as how it comes thers. The editor of the Journal hates slavery as he loves gin; and we intend to show at what from near the t'other place, an' wat it is as makes it come up in sich a hurry got me at first. Mr. Kellogg tele me it were bored a hole more than he is aiming, by pretending to be such an advocate of the rights of slave-holders in the Territo ries. He is aiming at power to be handed over tu thousan' feet deep, with a big gimlet con-sarn, fur tu let the waters out. This are a fashunabel resort; the ladies an folks wat think they is sick, comes here to drink this to the Black Republicans, and his design shall be

Hon, J. S. Chrisman's Position upon Congressional Protection to Slavery in the Territories. CANVASS IN THE EIGHTH DISTRICT.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] The Discussion at Midway. MIDWAY, KY., June 4, 1859.

Editors Louisville Courier: The candidates for Congress in this district spoke here yesterday, and as you would doubtless like to know something in relation to them, I will give you an account of the debate. By arrangement they each spoke one hour and a quarter, and had fifteen minutes each to reply. Capt. Simms, the Democratic candidate, opened the debate. He is an impressive man, and an impressive speaker, tall and dignified; he has a countenance. not only Impressive man, and an impressive speaker, tall and dignified; he has a countenance, not only indicating mind, but great moral purity and integrity of character, with an eye that combines mildness, firmness, and courage. He commenced by tracing the history of the slavery question, and showed that until 1820 there was no restriction placed upon the rights of the South, but perfect equality. By the Missouri compromise, however, a great wrong was perpetiated against however, a great wrong was perpetrated against us by the exclusion of slavery from nearly the entire territory of the country. He then showed how that, not content with this violation of faith, as soon as we had acquired the vast accession of territory which the Mexican war brought, an attempt was made by the application of the Wilmot Proviso, to exclude slaves from that also, thus cutting us off from the entire Territory.— He detailed the manner in which that was pre ented by the compomise of 1850, when by the declaration of the principle of equal rights in the Territories, began the work of setting right the error of the Missouri Compromise. That work was completed by the Kansas-Nebraska act, and confirmed by the Dred Scott decision, thereby placing Southerners upon the same footing as Northerners, and restoring the equality which existed in the days of Washington and prior to he Missouri Compromise. Mr. Simms claimed these triumphs as De cratic triumphs, and that they had been effected against the combined efforts of the Abolitionists.

and of the very men who are the leaders of the Opposition party in Kentucky. He then defined position upon the Territorial slavery que tion, as based upon the Territorial slavery ques-tion, as based upon the Dred Scott decision, which he stated clearly, and beyond the power of misrepresentation, to be this: That Congress ha i no power over slave property in the Territo-ries, except to guard and protect it as every other species of property; and that the Territorial Legislatures had no power but that delegated by Congress, and, therefore, could not exceed it that unfriendly legislation would be unconstitutional, and that it was the duty of the courts t rotect owners of slaves as well as other proper y; that whenever the Territorial Legislature in erfered with the rights of slave owners, or the courts proved unable to protect them, then it was the power and duty of Congress to do so. His enunciation of the principle of protection was the strongest and plainest I have yet heard. I have only attempted to give the principal topic of Mr. Simms' speech. He referred in addition to all the points which form the Opposition bill of indictment. His review of the formation bill of indictment. His review of the formation and objects of that party was the most scathing and withering piece of invective I ever listened to, and, in its delivery, he displayed the eloquence that moves the inmost soul. His voice is clear, and his enunciation distinct and accurate. words is chaste and scholarly, while there is no hesitating in selecting them to make his periods rhetorical and forcible. This is the great forte in public speaking, and he possesses i a happy degree.

Of the other speakers, it is not my purpose t trouble you with much detail. Mr. Trabue followed Capt. Simms. His speech consisted mainly of an account of the outrageous manner in which he had been treated by the Know Nothings, and traced the whole cause of his misfornes to the Frankfort clique, of which Mr. Har lan's father is the moving spirit. He showed how, that having been the first to raise the standard of American principles in the country when the Know Nothing party arose, it ignored his claims for office, and coquetted with him local when powerful and seeking denying him place when powerful, and seeking him as a candidate when weak. His disclosures of the party machinery were rich, and there was scarcely any one who will not regard him as very badly treated. He defined his position on other points of national policy, which were protection to slavery, and an endorsement of the Lecompton Mr. Harlan followed last. His position being ne of rejoinder, gave him an advantage which the weakness of his cause well demanded. have heard him, you would have thought either that he was the representative of a party co-extensive with the Union, and unsurpassed for he honesty and soundness of its principle or that he stood out as simply a party in him-self. He certainly did not attempt to explain away the sins and rottenness of the pre osition. He left the charges of Capt. Simms nanswered, and, except as an instance of the lower of a man to speak an hour and a half eputed defence of a party without succeeding is speech contained no strength. I will do Mr Harlan the justice to say, that for so young a man being only 26 years, the day before he commenced the canvass, as he informed us, he evinces no mean power as a speaker, and in a better cause would do well. But he is unfortunately made b his party to assume this race, when certain de-feat awaits him, and I regret that a youth of such promise should be so early nipped in the bud. In person, Mr. Harlan is tall, and is evi-dently elated by his nomination. He has red hair and a small red side whisker. His face promises to rival his hair, and his nose, rather long, has its end finely colored by the incapacity of his beaver to protect its extremity. He wears straps to his pants, and a standing collar, a scarf crava with a handsome breastpin, and a snuff-colored cloth coat with a velvet collar; and his appearance ndicates that distingue air which belongs to the high bred and aristocratic. But enough, a mach unconsciously, written you too long a letter, which you will use your judgment in publishing. Rest assured that Simms will unite the Democracy, and that he will carry the district by a triumphant will write. MIDWAY.

Resolved. That the Democracy of the State Louisiana, while renewing their adherence to the principles and declarations set forth in the plat-form adopted by the National Democratic Convenon at Cincinnati, in the year 1856, repudiate and denounce the false and heretical construction of these principles by which the rights of the South in the Territories of the Union would be sacrificed to the hostility of a local and Territorial majority and that, while denying to the Federal Govern ment the power to destroy those rights, for the protection of which Governments are established, and laws shoul be administered, they more strenuously protest against the usurpation of any such power, either directly or indirectly, through ex-press prohibition, unfriendly legislation or legis-lative inaction, by any subordinate agency. Resolved. That in the decision of the Supre

Court of the United States, in the case of Dred Scott, we are glad to recognize an emphatic endorsement by our highest judicial tribunal, of the correctness of those doctrines for which the Democratic party has always contended, and of the istice of the position occupied by the Southern States during the long course of sectional contro rersy.

Union are entitled equally, within the limits of the Constitution, to the vigilant solicitude and fostering care of the Federal Government; that, consistently with the requirements of the Constitution, every part of the country should be le alike free and unimproved in its commercial and material development, and that Territorial expansion is a legitimate expression of the healthy energies and growing capacities of the people.

Resolved, That in the application of the President to Congress at its late session, for power and means to use the army and navy for the protection of the rights of American citizens on the different transit routes in Central America and Mexico, we are considered as desired to resilie the conjustion, and perceive a desire to realize the aspirations and wish of the Democracy, and a disposition to initiate a vigorous and patriotic foreign policy.

Resolved, That we hold those Democratic members of the Senate and Mouse of Representatives of the United States, who, in a spirit of Opposition united with the Black Republicans and Abolitionists to oppose and defeat the wise and eminantly patriotic policy of President Buchanan on the Kansas question, as justly responsible before the country for the revival of a dangerous sectional question, and for all the angry and injurious agitation which has since prevailed on that subject.

Resolved, That in James Buchanan the Democracy of Louisiana recognize the pure patriet, the wise statesman and honored Chief Magistrate; that the Democratic measures conceived and sugcut. The obstructions had been fastened to the track, and it was evidently the expectation of those placing them there that the headway of the cars, after being thrown from the rails, would urge them forward to the embankment, where the locomotive, tender, and the cars, with their human freight, would be precipitated in a mangled heap to the bottom. Fortunately no person was seri-ously hurt. The engineer and fireman received some flesh wounds on the face and arms, but some flesh wounds on the state of the nothing serious.

Suspicion pointed to a man who lived in the neighborhood, and who, having had a couple of calves killed, had been heard to make some threats against the road. A party went to his house and asked for the loan of an axe to cut the engineer and flooman from under the wreck, pretending that the Democratic measures conceived and suggested under his guidance and counsel meet our most cordial approval, and that in regard to his Territorial policy the people of the Southern States particularly have just reason to extend to him the highest confidence and seems to extend to him the asked for the loan of an axe to cut the engineer and fireman from under the wreck, pretending that those persons were buried under the ruins. [Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] as. P. Bates on the Stump-Protection to Slavery in the Territories-Douglas and his Squatter

BOYLE COUNTY, Ky., June 1st, 1859.

Editors Louisville Courier: It has been my purpose for the last week to write you a line, touching the prospects of the Democracy in this section of the State, and more especially to notice the fact that our District, the Fourth, has been partially visited by our candidate for Super-intendent of Public Instruction, Hon. Jas. P. Bates. The writer had the pleasure of hearing Mr. B. at Stanford, last Wednesday, and can as-sure you our cause is safe in his hands. Mr. B.'s manner is forcible and extractive and the standard of the same sure your cause is safe in his hands. sure you our cause is sate in his nancs. Mr. B.'s manner is forcible and attractive, his reasoning free from sophistry, and convincing; his matter well selected. His position on the power of Congress to protect slavery in Territories of the United States in case a reasoning should easier for its gress to protect slavery in Territories of the United States, in case a necessity should arise for its exercise, is orthodox, and is that of Magoffin, and our State ticket. Mr. B. on this subject read and adopted as in accordance with and expressive of his own views, that part of the Dred Scott decision in the words, viz: "No word can be found in the Constitution which gives Congress a greater the Constitution which gives Congress a greater power over slave Territory, or which entitles property of that kind to less protection than property of that kind to less protection than property of any other description; the only power conferred is the power coupled with the duty of guarding and protecting the owner in his rights. How any Constitutional Democrat can deny this doctrine, is strange to a plain man like myself. It is the only ground upon which this Union can stand. Whenever the Democratic party adopt a seeming temporary expediency for correct principle, and at the sacrifice of such principle, it will speedily die, as it will deserve to do. Better far would it have been, that Douglas should have fallen, when making his Anti-Lecompton canvass in Illinois, than the Democratic allen, when making his hard second is in Illinois, than the Democratic should be forced to engraft upon its should be forced to engraft upon its should be forced to engraph of the second second in the second seco canvass in creed the miserable demagogue principle of the right of "unfriendly legislation," and that no less silly, and equally strong with Aboli-tion taint, that the power to protect proper-ty in slaves carried with it the power to destroy. Sadly pressed, indeed, were the friends of the Douglas heresy, to resort to so silly nd absurd an argument. If their doctrines were and absurd an argument. It then doctrines were true, then indeed, would our Legislature and our Judiciary, yea, and our Executive, have fearful powers of destruction. They all have the power oupled with the duty to protect persons and roperty coming under their jurisdiction; and if re are to adopt the wisdom of the "Lexington Statesman," and papers of kindred sentiment, they all have the power to destroy, annihilate, and abolish. Miserable justice, unworthy of serious consideration, But no such monstrous ab-surdity will ever find a lodgement in the Demo-cratic policy. They will sever Douglas, and those who hold his views, as they did Mr. Van Burer and Col. Benton, and in this way alone, will the Democratic party continue to be as it ever has been, powerful to defend the rights of the States ander the Constitution What, I would ask those who urge this Douglas what, I would ask those who arge this Douglas heresy upon the country, would have been the condition of the great National Democracy, if, instead of discarding Van Buren and Benton, they should, for fear of losing their influence, have countenanced their dangerous innovations in political doctrine? We would to-day have had no na Let the Democrati mocratic party more closely follow the teachings of the Constitution, never giving to the right or the left, and my word for it, and the past history of our party for it, she will continue to triumph, and to save the country from every threatened peril. They can loss a hundred such men as Douglas, intellectually great as he is, and still she will ride the storm in safety and success. The candidates for Congress in this district have not visited this county as yet. Our friends are sanguine of success by an increased major ty. Yours, truly, A DEMOCRAT. majori

The President in North Carolina. The President left Washington on Monday even ing, accompanied by the Hon. Jacob Thompson Secretary of the Interior, on a visit to the University of North Carolina. Upon their arrival at Weldon in that State, on Tuesday, they were formally welcomed by Governor Ellis and Ex-Governor Bragg, who, accompanied by several other distinguished citizens and two volunteer military companies from Raliegh and Wilmington, had proceeded thither to welcome their eminent guests, who were received in the presence of a large concurse of spectators.

The remarks on the occasion were brief and appropriate, and those of the President will attract the more interest from their announcement of his wish to retire to private life at the close of his present term of office. After Gov. Ellis' ad-dress, Mr. Buch anan said:

North Carolina. I have long contemplated a visit to your great and fruitful State, but have when I shall go into retirement, is that at which man is warned to remain at rest, and prepare for that great event which must overtake us all I have always admired this State. Jnion, the love of law and order are equally North Carolina, becomes a great civil blessng, unmixed as it is with lawlessness, which would make it a curse.

The Governor has spoken of me as a supporter o

the Constitution and the Union, and he has spoken truly. I ever expect to be. As long as this great charter of liberty remains unimpaired, we shall be the greatest and happiest people in the world. But let it be battered, and we become the scorn of the world and the hope of tyrants. Thank God here is no danger to it from North Carolina, for while she may have had her differences in pol while she may have had her differences in politics, she has never wavered on the great question of the Constitution. God bless the Old North State!"

At the close of the President's speech ex-Gov ernor Bragg, in a cordial address, welcomed Mr. Secretary Thompson, a native North Carolinian, who briefly and eloquently replied. The ceremo nies at Weldon were then closed with a national air from the hand; and after a few minutes rest, the party including the military companies, took a special train of cars for Raleigh, where they safely arrived in the evening. The address of welcome at Raleigh was delivered by the Hon. Daniel M. Barringer, and was replied to both by the President and Mr. Thompson.

The War in Europe-The First Battle.

NEW YORK, June 5th. The Herald of this morning, (Sunday,) has the llowing: The steamship City of Washington, off Cape Race, sent us news of the first battle between the French and the Austrians in Italy. It occurred on the 21st ult, at Montebello, the scene of one hard ought struggle of the first Napoleon, and where his favorite Marshal, Lannes, won his title of Duke of Montebello.

The fight puts an end to the lingering hopes entertained by a few persons that the rupture between France and Austria would yet be in some way peacefully, arranged. We hear French, Austrian and Sardinian reports, so there can be no doubt of it. The different accounts do not give similar statements as to the number engaged.—
The French represent the Austrians 15,000 strong, while their side numbered but six or seven thousand, with a regiment of Sardinian cavalry. From the Austrian side it is merely stated that Gen. Stadion pushed forward a strong force for From the Austrian side it is merely stated that Gen. Stadion pushed forward a strong force for reconnoisance, and after a hard fight retreated in good order behind the Po. Another affair of smaller moment has taken place on the left of the allied forces, where Gen. Chialdini had forced a passage of the Sesia; and Garibaldi had entered Gravellons with the intention of carrying out revolutionary movements in Lombardy.

In this first fight we have some guage of the stamina of the respective combatants. On each side they were led by experienced officers of high standing. General Stadion is a well known Austrian officer of merit, as is indicated by his side they were led by experienced of might standing. General Stadion is a well known Aus-trian officer of merit, as is indicated by his having been placed in the command of the ad-vanced guard of the army. Gen. Forry, who commanded the French, obtained a high reputa-tion in the Crimea. There is another incident in for in the Crimes. There is about the effect of the eports worthy notice, as indicating the effect of the presence of the Emperor on the French roops. The number of officers killed is reported large. Although Louis Napoleon was not on the battle field, he was at Alessandria, in the immedibattle field, he was at Alessandria, in the immediate vicinity, and besides being inspired by feelings of emulation of old Napoleonic glories, each felt that he was fighting under the immediate eye of his Emperor. With them it was glory or the grave. The fountain of all honor was at hand to witness their heroism, or to lave and sooth their wounds. When Francis Joseph reaches his camp, a similar inspiriting effect will, no doubt, be felt in the Austrian army, and Europe will witness one of thefiercest struggles, over one of the fairest one of the fiercest struggles, over one of the fairest portions of the earth, that history has ever re-our notice of a double-headed girl on exhib in Georgia, you express doubts as to the truth of the statement contained in the notice you pub-lished. One year ago this month I saw this child in St. Louis, Missouri. She is a slave, born in North Carolina. While an infant she was sold for one thousand dollars. The owner took the child to England, and exhibited it to hundreds of thousands in the old world. The present owner bought its mother, went to England, and institu-ed legal proceedings in the nam, of the mother or the custody of the child. The resemblance which the child bore to the mother was so strong that the presiding judge directed it to be given up to the mother, which was done. The late owner then offered to deposit in court fifty thousand dollars to the credit of the mother, if she would commit the child to him again, and remain with it herself again, and remain with it herself; for, by the laws of England, she and her child were free; but the offer was declined. "What should I do with so much money?" said she; "I wish to return with my child to North Carolina," which she did by the way of New York.

Her owner then asked the mother in what manner she wished to live, and he would conform to it. She asked for a little cottage and a patch ground where she could raise her own ch of ground where she could raise lives, with her ens. The Journal on Magoffin and Others. The bulk of the Democracy of Kentucky, including the Democratic candidate for the Governor ship, and nearly every other Democratic candidate in the field, hold with the Louisville Democrat that Congress, as a matter of policy, if on no ground, ought not to protect slave property other ground, ought not to protect slave propert in the Territories in any event.—Loursville Jour

The bulk of the Democracy of Kentucky, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and the other candidates, hold with the Louisville Democrat no such position. We do not know of a single Democratic candidate in Kentucky, who holds with the Democrat this doctrine, and we know that the bulk of the party utterly repudiate such an abominable heresy. Mr. Magoffin has said as lainly as words will let him speak, that Congress as the power to protect slavery in the Territories; and, instead of asserting that, as a matter of olicy, this power should not be exercised in any event, he has said again and again, that it is the duty of Congress to exercise this power whenever necessary. So far as we can learn, every one of our candidates upon the State ticket occupies this position, and the candidates for Congress, and for the State Legislature, hold the same doctrine. The following are Mr. Magoffin's own words upon the subject of protection : "That Congress has the power to protect while it cannot prohibit slavery in the Territories; that the Territorial Legislature, as its agent, cannot exclude or abolish slavery, directly or indirectly, by unfriendly legislation; that such legislation is void, and would be declared unconstitutional by the Federal courts; that it is the duty of the Terr torial Legislature to protect slave property, and property of all kinds; that the rights of property of all kinds are under the protection of the govern-ment, the Constitution and the laws; that our rights and remedies seem to be now complete in the Territories, and nothing has occurred to show their inadequacy; that the Democratic party has brought us to this position of safety against all the efforts of the Opposition, entertaining differ ent opinions on the subject, and forming combi ons to destroy it; that the struggles and tories over other parties have clearly shown that ours is the only party capable of protecting our rights, or guarding them in the future; and if it should be necessary to pass laws to enforce the decrees of the judiciary, or even to call out troops, that it would be the duty of the government to do

It is clear, then, that Mr. Magoffin asserts: 1. The power of Congress to protect slavery in prohibit slavery in the Territories. 3. The want of any power in a Territorial Legislature to abolish slavery, either directly or in-

4. The power of the Courts to declare any hos tile action of a Territorial Legislature against lavery unconstitutional.

5. The duty of a Territorial Legislature to pro tect slavery in the Territories. 6. And the duty of the Government, whenever necessary, to pass laws to enforce the decrees of the Judiciary, and even to call out troops to execute them.

Now, it seems to us that this protection platform of Mr. Magoffin is pretty strong. The principal difficulty in it is the closing words, which e insist are obscure. But we doubt not that Mr. Magoffin means by the duty of Government to pass laws to enforce the decrees of the Judiciary, and ven to call out troops, THE DUTY OF EACH DEPART-MENT OF THE GOVERNMENT WHEN NECESSARY TO ACT IN ITS PROPER SPHERE FOR THE PROTECTION OF ELAVE PROPERTY IN THE TERRITORIES. He herefore means that it is the duty of the National Legislature to pass laws for the rotection of the rights of slaveholders in the erritories of the United States, of the Judiciary set upon those laws, and of the Executive to e that they are executed, even by the use of ops, if peaceful measures will not suffice, whenever such action on the part of either department, cting in its proper sphere, is necessary.

Although, then, Mr. Magoffin thinks slavery is sufficiently protected in the Territories at this time, he is clearly, emphatically, and thoroughly for more protection whenever he is assured that it is necessary. Whenever, therefore, the Territorial Legislature fails to give adequate protect tion, and the courts cannot supply it, Mr. Magoffin is for the passage of the necessary laws by the legis-lative department of the Federal Government, the action of the Federal Judiciary upon those laws, and the assistance of the Federal Executive to enforce them. In other words, he is first for leaving the question of protection to the Territorial authorities and the courts, so long as adequate protection is thereby afforded; but whenever the rotection thus afforded is shown to be inadequate, he is for the passage of protective laws by Congress, the protective action of the courts upon those laws; and finally, if such peaceful ans will not secure the end in view, he is for enlisting the strong arm of the Executive department of the Federal Government, backed by the troops of the United States. We hardly think that any reasonable man would ask more protection than this, or assert that Mr. Magoffin was not for Congressional protection in any event.

Will the Question Arise! The anti-protection papers are continually de-claring that the doctrine of squatter sovereignty can never be a living or practical issue. Such editors certainly are either very ignorant or exceedingly stupid. We have not the slightest doubt that the question will arise up before Congress at its nextsession.

It will be remembered that during the last ses sion of Congress, Mr. Morris, of Illinois, as the organ and immediate representative of the views of Mr. Doulas on squatter sovereignty, offered a bill, providing that hereafter in the organization of Territories, the inhabitants thereof should be eft perfectly free to elect their own Governors Judges and other officers. This measure, we have no doubt, will be again pressed next winter. The especial guardians of "non-intervention" will then have an opportunity of showing how far they carry out that principle. To be consistent they will, we presume, sustain Mr. Morris' proposition and rid Congress entirely of the disturbing Territorial question. Hands off every way, is pure "non-intervention." Won't slavery be amply protected in the Territories when the Governors, Judges, &c., are all elected by the squatters, and when squatter Judges adjudicate on laws passed by squatter legislatures.

Hon, James S. Chrisman's Position on Protection. We said some days ago that Mr. Chrisman, the FAMILY SEWING MACHINES Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth District, had been grossly misrepresented on the slavery question in the Territories. We stated that we knew from Mr. Chrisman himself, that he laimed the power of Congress to protect; and A NEW STYLE. that those papers which represented him as de-nying this power, slandered him. We publish his morning a communication on the subject ting forth the true position of Mr. Chrisman on Territorial question. Our correspondent has rd Mr. Chrisman speak, and has conversed with im, and this communication may be regarded the next thing to a declaration from Mr. Chris-

[From the Richmond Enquirer, June 2d.] Popular Sovereignty vs. Squatter Sovereignty.

Popular Sovereignty vs. Squatter Sovereignty.
The Washington "States" publishes the following:
"Hon. Linn Boyd, the candidate for Lleutenant Governor of Kentucky, has been claimed by the Louisville Courier as friendly to the proposition that Congress should be requested to protect slavery in the Territories. It entirely and thoroughly misrepresents him.
"The Lexington Statesman says that Mr. Boyd disapproves the whole movement—thinks it most unwise, utterly barren of advantage to the South, and fraught with trouble to the party and danger to the country. He believes that Congress has power to extend to slavery protection as to all other species of property in the Territories, but he does not healtste to declare his opinion that such a demand, at this time, is unnecessary, impolitic, and a breach of faith with the parties to the compromise measures of 1850 and 1854. He believes that the South ought not now to sak a slave code for the Territories at the hands of Congress, and is opposed to Congressional intervention at this time, either to protect or in any mode regulate slavery in the Territories."

Such is the position to which absolute non-in-Such is the position to which absolute non-insuch is the position to which absolute non-in-terventionism pushes its own adherents. If the assertion of the "Statesman" shall be found ac-curate, then we have reason for congratulation at Mr. Boyd's frankness—while we regret that a statesman of his distinction should be misled into tional rights of the States, and especially with the interests of the Southern States. Nay, the a position so much at variance with the constitua position so much at variance with the constitubest interests of all the States of the Union demand that the slavery question shall be settled on a permanent basis; and every light of experi-ence or of forecast demonstrates the fact that no basis of settlement can be permanent, unless it shall consist in a strict recognition and obser-vance of the letter and spirit of the Constitution

f the United States Admitting the fact that the Constitution does onfer on Congress the power to protect every species of persons and property in the Territo-ries, Mr. Boyd is obliged to admit that it is the mperative duty of Congress to pass all acts nessary to secure such protection This is an instance in which power and duty are

But Mr. Boyd urges that Congressional protection to a certain species of property is "unnecessary." How unnecessary? Unnecessary at present? This is at least doubtful, at this moment, when a Territorial Legislature is openly attempting the abolition of slavery. Certainly, Mr. Boyd cannot pretend to such prophetic inspiration as would authorize the assertion that henceforward and forever Congressional protection to the rights f persons and property in the Territories, will be "unnecessary." So far as the necessity is oncerned, Congress should be left where the Constitution leaves it, to judge in each instance that may arise, what legislation, if any, is "nec-essary and proper" for the sufficient protection of persons and property.

Mr. Boyd further urges that any demand for ion, from Congress, at this time, would be impolitic. This depends upon the question as to the necessity for protection at this time, and does not touch the vital question at issue. That question the vital question at issue. tion is, shall the people of any part of the Union, abjure, renounce or waive their unquestionable right to the protection of their persons and property by each and every department of the Genera

Finally, Mr. Boyd objects to a Constitutional exercise of power by Congress, as involving a breach of some agreement entered into by cer-tain "parties to the compromise measures of 1850 and 1854."

These "parties," we presume, are the members of Congress who voted for the measures referred to. Did Southern members, by voting for certain of the Compromise measures of 1850, or for the subsequent Kansas-Nebraska compromise, intend to uent Kansas-Nebraska compromise, milify the power and duty of Congress to protect persons and property in the Territories? ubt whether many will be found to admit such intention, and many have certainly denied it.— But suppose they did. How, then, is their action binding? Look at the state of the case. A member of Congress takes an oath to support the Con-stitution. The Constitution makes it his duty to stitution. The Constitution makes it his duty to vote for laws protecting persons and property in the Territories. He enters into a partisan agreement to oppose the passage of such laws. Which must be violate—the oath or the agreement? This simple statement of the case is a first territories. simple statement of the case is sufficient to expose the pretence about a "breach of faith" so industriously harped on by non-interventionist pose the pretence about a "breach of faith" so industriously harped on by non-interventionist partisans. If any member of Congress has entered into an agreement to violate the Constitution, that agreement is in no manner binding on the people of the United States, or on the Demoparty-and he owes it to "good faith"-he owes it to his oath to violate the agreement.

As for the catch-word "slave code," so frequent y employed, we seriously protest against its em-loyment by other than Black Republican presses and orators. It smacks of Abolitionism, and does and orators. It smacks of Adolitionism, and does injustice to the position and the just demands of the South. We ask for no "slave code." We ask for no peculiar or exclusive privilege for slave persons and slave property. We only ask that all persons and all property shall receive from the General Government the measure of legal protection awarded them by the Constitution. protection awarded them by the Constitution A word more. We recommend to all of our Southern brethren, who are "weak in the knees" on the subject of Constitutional right, a perusal of the manly, straight-forward, conservative position announced by the Democratic Standard, of Concord, New Hampshire. We will publish hereafter the article at length. At present an extract must suffice:

"The Washington organ, ('the Constitution,') we imagine, will find that it will be compelled to take the only true and substantial ground with reference to this question, which can be taken, viz: That all property, existing in the form of slave labor, or cattle, or horses, or in any other form, must be fully protected in the Territories, lat, by the people of the Territories, it they will; 2d, by the judiciary, if that shall prove adequate; and if both the former fail, or prove inadequate to pretect such property, then, 3d, by Congress and the Executive power of the Maied States. To propose anything short of this, is a cheat, a delusion, and will be repetited by all honorable minds."

Read it, gentlemen of the South, and say whether with this, the language of a leading whether with this, the language of a leading Northern Democratic paper before you, you will agree to infringe the Constitution of the United States, for the purpose of yielding up your own rights of property a sacrifice to sectional clamor. The great principle of popular sovereignty must be maintained. Whenever the people of a Territory assemble to form a State Constitution, they, and they alone, have the right to abolish or to protect property in slaves or cattle on here. to protect property in slaves, or cattle, or horses or in any other form. And this principle of pop-ular sovereignty never can be fairly and fully maintained, if we are to allow its exercise to be preceded and superseded by the anarchy of squat-ter severeignty, snatching power regardless of the equal rights of the States, the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and every principle of the "law

They joined the Union Opposition. They nominated Josh. Bell for Governor. Josh. Bell is their idol, now. They swear by him, support him, and declare their willingness to die for him. Josh. Bell says Marshall did wrong when he voted against the administration on the Kansas question. He says Marshall did wrong when he defended "American" principles, and declares that the principles and spirit of that order menaced civil and religious liberty. Yet Josh. Bell's friends couldn't get along without the aid of this man, whom their leader repudiates. They nominated Mr. Marshall for Congress in his district. He begs to be excused from swallowing that pill. RHEUMATISM .- This afflicting, painful and parlyzing disease seems to be more prevalent, just ow, than we have ever before known it in summer. We hear of many cases of it, especially in its inflammatory form, which is very painful, and its inflammatory form, which is very painful, and often dangerous, more especially, as in changing from this to the chronic form, it often stiffens or dislocates the joints, contracts the muscles and tendons, and thus renders the patient an invalid for life.

Dr. Mortimore, whose office is on Third street, a this city, opposite the Journal office, has for years made the treatment of this disease his prinipal speciality, now has a large number of paients under successful treatment-cases including every form of the disease. His remedy has proved very successful in every part of the Union where introduced. Recent inflammatory cases are easily cured by the use of his remedy, while he has also cured vast numbers who were helpless, and had not walked for ten and even twenty years. All who are afflicted, should avail themselves of his advice and use of his remedy as early as possible.

We learn that Dr. M. has made arrangement o supply depots with his remedy, in the cities of Cincinnati, St. Louis, Memphis, and New Orleans, in each of which places, there has of late, been a great demand for it. je4 deod4&w1 JUST THE THING .- Our attention was called this

IN EXISTENCE.

HARDY & ROBINSON, NO. 69 FOURTH SPREET,

THE undersigned having again accepted the agency for the sale of the above Jars, would respectfully call the attention of everybody in the fruit growing regions to them. They are admitted to be the only Jar that can be used year after year for preserving Fruits and Vegetables in their natural state. This ware is manufactured from a composition which vitrifies in burning, and becomes nearly as stony as cast iron, and as impervious to acids as glass, and as they are free from any metalic fixtures, there can be no objections to them on account of poison, light, porousness, &c., which have condemned cans made of other materials. We sold these Jars in large quantities last year, and know not of a single instance where they did not give entire satisfaction. We are now prepared to fill orders to any amount at reduced prices from last season.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From St. Louis. St. Louis, June 5 .- The Utah mail brings Sr. Louis, June 5.—The Utah man brings a proclamation of Gov. Cumming, commanding various parties of Mormons associated together in a military capacity in the mountains surrounding Salt Lake Valley to immediately disperse. The Valley Tan complains that this proclamation is not put into the hands of Federal officers to execute, instead of the Territorial Marshal, and as-serts that treason is as rife in the Territory now as before the advent of the army.

The overland mail arrived last night. Eight white men, prospecting for silver near Honey Lake, had been killed by Indians.

The house of Col. Stevenson, at Red Bluff, was burned on the 11th. Stevenson's wife and another woman and five children perished in the flames.

The Arizonia of the 19th is filled with accounts of the proceedings of a hard of revulators, who of the proceedings of a band of regulators who had driven all the Mexicans from Senorita Valley, and committed several murders. Americans at Tubac publicly denounced the outrages and the company. Troops had been detailed from Fort Buchanan to suppress further proceedings.

Heavy Frost-Corn Crop Destroyed. BUFFALO, June 6.—The severe frost of Saturday in this vicinity destroyed the fruit and potatoes, and it is feared it has done heavy damages to DANVILLE, N. Y., June 6.—There was a heavy frost in this vicinity on Saturday night, killing all the garden vegetables, corn, potatoes, &c. It is also feared that fruit of all kinds has been CLEVELAND, June 6.—There was a heavy frost on Saturday night. The wheat crop throughout Northern Ohio is badly injured or destroyed. Corn, grasses, and potatoes are frested. ZANESVILLE, June 6.—Heavy frost in this neighborhood on Saturday night. Corn is entirely destroyed. A great many farmers are preparing to replant. Wheat is much damaged.

Shocking Murder in New York-Body Found. New York, June 6.—The papers give the par-iculars of a shocking wife murder in this city esterday. The husband, Geo. Meyer, has, it is aid, already served a term in the State prison. The dead body of a female, well dressed, was picked up in the bay, near Fort Hamilton, yesterday. From appearances it was evident she had met her death by violence. The case is surround ed as yet with considerable mystery, and the Cor-oner's investigation may lead to the revelation of a horrible crime.

From New York. New York, June 6.—The dispatches by the Indian are merely a repetition of those received by the City of Washington from Cape Race. She will reach Quebec this evening.

SPECIAL NOTICES. BE NOT STIFF-NEOKED, AND REJECT NOT WHAT EXPE-RIENCE TEACHES -Fevers, sore throats, agues, rheumatism, dropsies, billious affections, headaches, all affections of the stomach and bowels, both of a costive and dysenteric character, and all the maladies of women and children, have been cured by the use of Branlreth's Pills. To tell you that I have paid two millions of dollars to make this truth knownn, is of itself an asounding fact; and never was a truer word snoken. An what is the result? Why that about three million persons in the United States partially believe in their effi acy and have a general idea of the benefits to be derived from purgation in sickness. But what a field for philanthrophy! What millions remain to be converted! and let me say that this knowledge is second only to Christianity in the benefits it is capable of conferring on mankind. Let not medical men persuade you that Brandreth's Pills are a quack remedy. It is no such thing. What I sell you for two shillings these men ould not furnish for a dollar. My herbs and extracts are all prepared in my own laboratory, where a steam ngine of one hundred and forty horse power is emoyed exclusively for this purpose, besides an extenive water power. In using these pills you risk nothing, for they have been used by millions; so that should you feel disposed to take a sly dose, you will be able ertainly to live through the operation; and you may have the laugh on your side when the doctor tells you that he hit your case exactly with that last medicine. Go on in use of the Pills. They will cure you without hurting yoar teeth or gums, and in every way improve your health. Lyon's Powder and his Pills. All the insect tribe will kill.

Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute says:-"The discovery of this powder, by Prof. Lyon, is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have tested it thoroughly. Locusts, grasshoppers, ants, bugs and all vermin can be destroyed, gardens preserved, and houses made pure. It is free from polson to nankind, as we saw Mr. Lyon eat it." There is no estion as to the great efficacy of this article. A few applications destroys every thing like garden bed-bugs, fleas, ticks, roaches, &c. It is an Asiatio plant discovered by Mr. E. Lyon. OHIO WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PROPRIE THEORIO WHITESULPHUR SPRINGS

The improvements of 1859 have been large, enabling the proprietor to accommodate from five to six hundred guests. Among these improvements may be mentioned a large and elegant hotel, new cottage rows, additional buildings for amusement and recreation, extensive bathhouses, a steam laundry, &c., &c.

Upon the estate there are five Springs, all within the lawn, four of which, the Whits Sulphur, the Chally-Brate, the Magnesian, and the Salins Challybeath are decidedly medicinal, whilst the fifth is remarkable for the purity of its water.

THE WHITE SULPHUR

bank of the Scioto river. At the depth of 160 feet be-low the level of the Scioto, flews the remarkable stream of sulphur water which supplies this Spring. This stream was discovered some 80 years ago by a gentleman who was boring for sait. The water, when reached, at once arose to the surface, and has ever since continued to flow during all seasons without changers and travers.

Invalids may rely upon every facility being furnished them which can contribute to health and comfort.

As a delightful resort during the summer months, the Ohio White Sulphur Springs have no rival in the West, and but few in the United States. The location is peculiarly healthy; the Scioto here is a rapid, rocky stream; the "Oliff Limestone," a formation hundreds of feet in thickness, through which the river cuts its way, is everywhere either at or near the surface; the grounds of the estate are beautifully undulated, and interspered with numerous ravines which carry off all the superfluous water, thus rendering the soil dry and the atmosphere free from that humdity so prejudicial to health; these circumstances, taken in connection with the altitude of the place, about 1,000 feet above the level of the ocean, make the locality as free from malarious influences as

The opposition of railroads against steam boats, is pretty severely felt among parties at St. Louis, epecially in the upper Mississipi, and the Missouri trade. It would be well enough for all boatmen to make it a rule to have no connec tion whatever with railroad lines. We copy the following extracts from our St. Louis exchanges:

All the old packet companies between 8t. Louis and St Paul, and the Illinois Central Raifroad, have combined to break down the Northern liners; freight and passengers are being carried for a mere song; mandate has gone forth from Galena, that but one line of boats shall run on the upper Mississipi, and only thirty days are allotted to the Northern line to leave, at the end of which time, they must of course die.

are allotted to the Northern line to leave, at the end of which time, they must of course die.

We trust such an arrangement will soon be made, so that neither line will die of a suicidal policy.

It was rumored that an impertant change is to be made in the Missouri river line of packets. It is this, as far as we can learn—and we understand a meeting of the officers of the Association was held yesterday, in relation to the matter—to have sixteen boats in the line, all of which will run through to Council Bluffs and Omaha, one boat leaving every day. It was also proposed to ignore St. Joseph, as a haulting place, and stop at Elwood instead. It will secure to the boats a large amount of business, that would otherwise find its way over the Hanibal and St. Joseph Railroad, and give travelers an oppor tunity of going through.

use in such an emergency.

For more than 12 months past the Secretary of the Treasury has been receiving information from the collectors, in compliance with the official instructions as to what reductions can be made in the expenses of collecting the revenue from cus-toms. As the reports have been successively received, the reforms have been gradually carried out so far as they could be without detriment to the public service. The expenses attending the collection of revenue during the last year were about $20,000 less than during the one preceding. The reduction of the expenses at New STEAMER DIANA 1859. BY TELEGRAPH.

York and other cities, soon to be effected, is a part of the economical arrangement.

The Treasury has ample means at its command.

$1,500,000 of the late loan has not yet been called in, but can be obtained at any time, besides from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 of Treasury notes can now be reissued under a recent act of Congress, and as many as may be redeemed can be reissued

Therefore, with the $4,000,000, the Treasury has subject to draft nine or ten millions, at this time available for Treasury purposes. Within the last ten days, a million and a half in Treasury notes have been reissued at 5 per centum. The frigate Congress is to be the flag ship of the Brazil squadron. Purser Slabin has been ordered to this vessel.

A private letter from Hon. J. Glanev Jones our Minister to Austria, says that Ex-President Pierce, who had been sojourning in Vienna, left there on the 12th of May. The municipal election passed off quietly with-out any of those scenes which have heretofore dis-graced the city. There was no serious opposition to the anti-Know Nothing ticket.

MEDICAL.

LOUISVILLE PRIVATE MEDICAL DISPENSARY, Established for the relief of the misguided and im-prudent votary of felse pleasure, who, finding that he has simbibed the seeds of a certain loathsome dis-ease, is, from an ill-timed sense of shams, deterred from applying to a Physician, whose knowledge and soperience can alone befriend him in distress,

DR. GATES CAN BE consulted at his office—the one formerly occupied by Dr. King—where he would call the attention of all those afflicted with diseases of a private or confidential nature, to the new method of treatment as practiced in the English and French hospitals. Having for several years made this class of diseases a SPGUALITY, with the knowlmade this class of diseases a SPECIALITY, with the knowledge he has of them, warrants him in saying that there is no form or symptom which they assume that is within advance of their years, can consult Dr Gates with the fullest assurance of being again restored to that state of health which they would have enjoyed had they never committed any excess.

Persons contemplating marriage, and having any doubts as to their physical ability to enter into that solemn contract, should apply at once to Dr. Gates, who will remove all obstacles to prevent a long and happy
